WHITBY FOLK WEEK WHITBY@HOME 2021

SOUVENIR PROGRAMME

WELCOME TO YOUR HOME!

Hello, and welcome to Whitby@Home 2021!

As you know, due to the ongoing COVID-19 situation, there will once again be no official folk week events happening in Whitby itself during what would have been Folk Week. Instead, we have another programme of virtual events, including dances, concerts, sessions, workshops, children's activities and Yoof Club, featuring some of your favourite Whitby artists and a few new faces. It's not as full a programme as Whitby real, but we hope you'll find something to either join in with or sit back and listen to from your home/holiday cottage/caravan. Also, don't forget to visit our 24/7 virtual Music & Craft Fair and CD stall to stock up on Christmas presents!

For zoom events, there are online registration forms which will need to be completed and submitted at least one day before the event. Please note, some workshops have limited numbers – as you know, some of our Whitby venues are small! So please register for these events and we'll email you the joining instructions.

If you have any queries during the week, then please email us at whitbyathome@gmail.com

All our artists have kindly given their time for free and we are not charging for any events. There will be links to donate to Artists, Whitby RNLI and of course, Whitby Folk Week itself – so please donate if you can, but if you can't we hope you'll still enjoy Whitby@Home!

Take care and stay safe, and we hope to see you at Whitby Folk Week 2022

MELROSE QUARTET – FESTIVAL PATRONS

Folk Week patrons, Melrose Quartet are Nancy Kerr, James Fagan, Jess and Richard Arrowsmith. Their rich repertoire combines traditional songs and tunes with more recent material that merges seamlessly into the folk canon.

They deliver a capella and accompanied song in their strong and inimitable style, alongside dance-informed instrumental sets that both define and re-invigorate social dance rhythms from Britain and beyond. Bouzouki, box, two fiddles and four voices in sublime conjunction.

ELIZA CARTHY – FESTIVAL PATRON

Beloved of staunch traditionalists and iconoclasts alike, Eliza's music effortlessly crosses boundaries of genre and style. Whether performing a centuries-old ballad or a self-written song, her powerful, nuanced voice, fiercely beautiful fiddle playing, and mesmerizing live performances have influenced a whole generation of young musicians. Describing herself simply as a "modern English musician", Eliza Carthy is one of the faces of British folk. Whitby is one of Eliza's local festivals and she and her family have a long history with us back to the very first festivals.

WILL & PIPPA NOBLE

Will and Pippa have been regulars at Whitby for many years. They perform together whilst Will also has had the very important job of leading Wild Mountain Thyme to close our festival for many years now and this one will be no different.

They're both involved in running Folklics, the North Lincolnshire Youth Folk Ensemble and currently devising a folk school for the North Lincolnshire area. Most importantly for Whitby, they are the longstanding leaders of the Infamous Festival Orchestra!

TAFFY THOMAS

Taffy founded and directed the legendary folk theatre company, Magic Lantern, illustrating traditional stories and songs with shadow puppets and circus skills. He founded and directed the community arts company, Charivari, including Whitby Folk Week legends the Fabulous Salami Brothers, which he fronted as Count Salami. Now a storyteller with an MBE, Taffy has a repertoire of more than 300 stories and Whitby wouldn't be the same without him!

NICK DOW

One of the best Folk voices of his generation. Nick Dow has been singing and collecting Traditional Folk Songs for over 40 years. His Guitar playing is sensitive and well thought out and his repertoire contains many songs you will hear nowhere else. Nick has gleaned songs from the West Country and been given songs by the Travelling people with whom he has lived and worked. Also trained in the dying art of Gypsy Wagon Painting, working for a long list of Celebrities including Ronnie Wood. His gigs are informative, entertaining and nobody goes home disappointed.

JOHN CONOLLY

An internationally-respected songwriter, firmly rooted in British folk tradition. His most popular song, "Fiddlers' Green" (a fisherman's vision of Paradise) is performed and loved all over the world. Guaranteed a laugh at some of his funny songs but also a great deal of enjoyment to be had from his more serious side.

OUR FESTIVAL ARTISTS

HELPING YOU ENJOY WHITBY@HOME 2021

BRYONY GRIFFITH & ALICE JONES

Established solo artists on the folk scene, this powerful new duo is sure to turn some heads. From West Yorkshire, long-time purveyors and performers of traditional English folk music, united by a mutual fascination with local folk song and tune collections. Combining a respect for tradition with their own contemporary style of performance, they present a unique repertoire of harmony, history and Northern banter, featuring fiddle, harmonium, tenor guitar and intricate vocals in their distinctive regional accents. We are also very lucky to have Bryony as our Yoof Club leader!

JOHN KIRKPATRICK

He joined The Hammersmith Morris Men as a 12-year-old in 1959 and has been dancing, singing and playing his way round every aspect of the English Folk Scene ever since. Working in all kinds of bands and duos, squeezing his boxes, singing his socks off, creating songs, tunes and The Shropshire Bedlams. Awarded lifetime membership of The International Concertina Association in 2002, the EFDSS Gold Badge in 2003 and now Her Majesty The Queen – always a fan – appointed him an MBE, for his contribution to English Folk Music.

VICKY COOPER

Band leader for Silkstone Greens North West Morris and a relative newcomer to all things folk but long-time musician. She has previously taught at North East Playgroup, Derbyshire Playgroup and Melodeons at Wensleydale. She has a passion for encouraging others to take up melodeon in the hope they love it as much as she does! She plays D/G and G/C melodeons, with a particular soft spot for French tunes. Her workshop is sponsored this year by Acorn Instruments.

PETE SHEPHEARD

A fine singer and melodeon player with a repertoire including many songs from his own collecting. He first came to the riches of traditional song as a student at St Andrews and a member and organiser of the folk club. Contact with the Stewart Family of Blairgowrie led to song collecting on the Berryfields and exploration of traveller tradition in Scotland, England and Ireland. He runs Springthyme Records, organises FifeSing and continues a life-long involvement in traditional song and music.

HAMMERSMITH MORRIS

Kitted out in blue and gold, cutting a dash on the streets and off, Hammersmith Morris Men continue to thrill and entertain audiences around the country. Known for their lively and engaging style they entertain at all manner of events and venues.

JIM MAGEEAN & GRAEME KNIGHTS

Jim has been running the Shanty Sessions at Whitby Folk Week for nearly 50 years, their home now in The Endeavour on Church St. Ably assisted by Graeme Knights, the sessions run on a 'come All ye' basis where everyone gets a sing (maritime of course). The aim, to raise as much as possible for Whitby Lifeboat over the week by donations, raffles etc. Over £30,000 was raised in the last few years and we hope the good work will continue. 'Outward Bounders' at the beginning and 'Homeward Bounders' at the end of the week there are daily themes and surprise guests. Come and join Jim and Graeme for a pint and a shanty or two and help raise money too.

SIMON BROCK

One of only a handful of clog makers left in Britain. Having trained as a furniture maker and working with leather for 10 years, he was persuaded to take clog making seriously by his mentor Trefor Owen and has been making clogs full-time for nearly 4 years. Simon makes clogs for step dancing, morris dancing and increasingly, for people who just want a cool and unique pair of shoes. He can usually be found on his stall at Whitby Folk Week but this year he's doing a live demo from his Sheffield workshop instead.

PAUL BELLAMY & LYNN HAYNES

This brother and sister duo are resident singers at Grimsby Folk Club where they started in the 60s as teenagers. In the 70s and '80s they were part of Galley and Force Four. Paul played fiddle with the Broadside Ceilidh Band and now The Little Band and the Bell Apple Boys. Paul and Lynn perform a mixture of traditional and contemporary songs sung in harmony and accompany themselves on guitar, fiddle and whistle.

JOHNNY HANDLE

Johnny's compositions ranging from poignant mining songs to the hilarious Geordie favourite Stottin' Doon the Waall sit comfortably alongside those of Joe Wilson, Tommy Armstrong and Geordie Ridley guaranteeing his place in North East folklore for generations to come.

MARTYN WYNNDHAM-READ

In his late teens, he headed off, with his guitar, to South Australia where he worked on a sheep and cattle station, Emu Springs. It was while he was there, that he first heard the old songs sung by some of the station hands, became captivated by the character and atmosphere of the songs and the need to know more. He headed off to Melbourne, becoming part of the folk song revival throughout Australia during the early 1960s. Back to England in 1967, he met with renowned singer and song collector Bert Lloyd who had also spent time in Australia, made some albums with him, started recording for Bill Leader and later with Fellside Recordings.

Now, with over 55 years in folk music, he has his own label and Youtube Channel.

CROWS

Crows were popular on folk scene from 1978 to 1988. Following the sad death of Ralph Jordan in 2013, there is a new line up for the band's revival featuring original members, Mick Ryan and Dave Bordewey. They are joined by Pete Harris (vocals, guitar, bouzouki) and the inimitable Paul Downes (guitar, banjo, mandocello, harmonies). All four highly respected performers in their own right. For the new 'Crows', it is very clearly 'Time To Rise' which is the name of their 2016 album.

MAGGIE MOORE & STAN BLOOR

A Suffolk-based folk duo, AKA Pluck & Squeeze (confusingly also the name of their ceilidh band!) Their love and enjoyment of music really bursts through. They always try to involve their audiences; be it at general concerts of traditional English song and music; themed concerts such as the Industrial Revolution in Lancashire; Music Hall or even Bawdy Ballads with songs from the 17th century to date - you can be assured of a fun, varied show with lots of opportunity to join in. Maggie on melodeon, accordion piano and hammered dulcimer, Stan on Guitar, Banjo and Ukulele.

CHINEWRDE

Performing with attitude and precision from historic Warwickshire - indeed Kenilworth was called Chinewrde in the 11th Century. They're not quite that old but have been performing for over 35 years. That is still their chief aim, along with preserving and developing the tradition - and having a lot of fun along the way! Driven on by a high-class band and high flying clogs.

WINDSOR MORRIS

Founded in 1974, when it was rare for women to dance morris. They established a reputation for innovative and vigorous performance of dances based on the Cotswold village traditions of Badby and Brackley and have always aimed to entertain and impress the audience. Recently, they have created their own 'tradition' of more flowing dances, so that the variety of style and the different shapes and orientations of the dances give performances of interest and excitement.

JIM & LYNETTE ELDON

For thirty years or more, Jim played for a living on board the Bridlington pleasure boats Yorkshire Belle and Flamborian. That was a seven-days-a-week commitment from April to October, playing without amplification out on deck up to seven trips a day. Jim's wife, Lynette is a champion clog dancer and founder member of Green Ginger Clog Dancers. Together they have performed all over Europe and two of their albums showcase Lynette's expert step dancing.

LANCASHIRE WALLOPERS

This clog step team was born out of the teaching of the legendary Sam Sherry, who spent most of his working life as a step & acrobatic dancer in the music halls & variety. The Wallopers perform, in various imaginative routines, the steps of Sam Sherry and other famous Lancashire clog dancers. Sam danced to entertain; the Wallopers aim to do the same.

WHITBY YOOF CLUB@HOME

FOR FESTIVAL GOERS AGED 10-18 YEARS

Welcome to Whitby Folk Week Yoof Club@Home 2021!

We've created daily activities covering song, tunes and dance that hopefully include a bit of something for everyone to do at home while we can't be together in person. The workshops are pre-recorded and will be published on the Whitby@Home YouTube channel at 11am each day.

There is also a new private Facebook group for the children's and youth activities. To keep this secure, it will be by invitation only, so you or a parent/carer will need to send an email to folkweekchildren@gmail.com to receive a link to join.

While we can't work towards a performance together like we usually do, if you'd like to share any videos of what you have learnt during the week, you are invited to add them to the private Facebook group on Friday at 1pm.

More information about each daily workshop can be found below. The song and tune workshops are designed to be learnt by ear, but lyrics and treble clef notation will also be published on the private Facebook page.

We're really looking forward to seeing you all virtually! Bryony 😊😊

JIM WOODLAND

He earns a living making up songs, stories and plays. He's produced a remarkable body of work largely because he likes to... partly because other people asked him to. From beginnings in street theatre and Punk Rock, Jim worked at Folk festivals with the Fabulous Salami Brothers and since has co-written 15 or so plays with songs for Mikron Theatre, half a dozen for Jack Drum and for Blaize. Open air spectaculars, cabaret and kids' shows. Enough songs written, published, sold and performed in touring shows and concerts to fill many albums.

BEN POTTON AND SELAM ADAMU

Ben & Sel are regulars at Whitby Folk Week and folk festivals across the land as both musicians and dancers. They are familiar faces in the festival sessions. Ben plays fiddle with the band Jigfoot among others and dances with Berkshire Bedlam Morris. Sel has danced and played with numerous morris teams and is an enthusiastic addition to a music session, playing the recorder, clarinet and Northumbrian pipes.

MOSSY CHRISTIAN

Award winning professional musician, singer and dancer, specialising in the musical traditions of Lincolnshire and Yorkshire. Drawing on a rich and diverse repertoire of traditional dance tunes and folk songs, charting the lives of everyday people, in their work and recreation, from the 1700s to the present day. Delighting audiences across the UK with performances at festivals and folk clubs from Whitby to Sidmouth, Morpeth to Nottingham, not to be missed.

JOHN BOWDEN & VIC SHEPHERD

John, originally from Liverpool and Vic from Sheffield where they live, sing English songs from the Sheffield area as well as North American and Canadian variants unaccompanied harmony or with Anglo concertina, melodeon and jew's harp. They have a long connection to the Grenoside Sword Dancers and are both stalwarts of the Local Carols traditions in Ecclesfield and Grenoside.

CREAM TEES

An award-winning folk band from Barnard Castle. With an ever-evolving membership of young musicians since their 2011 inception, they've breathed new life into forgotten folk music collected in the Teesdale area over the last 150 years by collectors including Ralph Vaughan Williams, Alan Lomax, Joan Littlewood & Ewan MacColl. Past and current members of the band are part of Folkestra and EFDSS' National Youth Folk Ensemble and ex-members recently graduating from Newcastle University's Folk & Traditional Music BA - approaching their 5th visit (and 2nd @Home!), Whitby Folk Week has officially become their home festival!

TAKE THREE & CHARLOTTE RICH-GRIFFIN

A one-off Whitby@Home collaboration of three of England's most popular contra dance musicians; Ali Messer, Linda Game and Gareth Kiddier. With a number of superb recordings together used at online contra dances during times when playing together live was not possible, this is your one and only chance to hear them playing that material live! Joined by caller, Charlotte Rich-Griffin, enthusiastic and experienced in ceilidhs, American-style contra dances and Playford. She loves sharing dances with everyone from beginners to die-hard fans. During the pandemic, Charlotte adapted dances for zoom, making sure they work for everyone.

NOTTS ALLIANCE

They're not young nor pretty and they've been around the folk scene so long they get bookings as their own tribute band but their enthusiasm for the music keeps them moving on to find new material and different arrangements.

Audiences say they like the diversity of the material, from the sublime to the absurd and the boys (!) enjoy the challenge of material that can be funny, off the beaten track, or both.

PETER AND BARBARA SNAPE

A duo with a great love of traditional British folk music especially that of the North of England where they live. Their songs and music offer a refreshing and individual approach which effortlessly embraces the carefully researched repertoire of material they love performing. Convivial company, a proven quality act and a close-knit partnership deservedly popular with audiences.

DAMIEN BARBER

Raised in Norfolk and heavily influenced by earlier Norfolk singers such as Walter Pardon and Peter Bellamy, Damien is a stylish and distinctive singer, a capella or accompanied on guitar or concertina. Best known in recent years for his critically acclaimed shows 'The Demon Barbers XL' and 'The Lock In', Damien is now returning to the traditional songs of East Anglia that ignited his passion in folk music. He is the epitome of a traditional folk singer, learning his trade directly from some of the best.

VICKI SWAN AND JONNY DYER

Years of experience on the Playford, Contra and Ceilidh scenes stood them in good stead for transition to virtually playing for Zoom dances in 2021. Jonny plays a range of instruments including cowhorn, harpsichord, carnyx and näverlur - none of which will be played at our ceilidh. He will, however, play accordion. Vicki plays nyckelharpa - the magical keyed fiddle from Sweden. As far as she is concerned, no other instruments matter.

KEITH DONNELLY

Keith is a very [very!] funny, globe-trotting, Geordie tall-tale-telling-singer-songwriter-guitarist...and a Whitby favourite for all ages! "Keith could make sheep laugh!" – Jasper Carrot

ALISTAIR RUSSELL

Alistair has a long involvement with Whitby and Folk Week. From the North-East, a Scots family, his life as a linguist, performer, sound engineer and tour manager has taken him all around the world many times including time with the Battlefield Band, solo and duo with Chris Parkinson - a life story reflected in his recent autobiography "Can't Do This on My Own".

BOB ELLIS

Melodeon player and leader of the Yorkshire Dales Folk Dance and Tunes Project for the Dales Countryside Museum at Hawes. Playing Dales tunes, French music with Les Panards Dansants, Morris for Crook Morris and an eclectic mix of folk-dance with The Loose Knit Band. Leader of workshops and sessions, Bob wrote a book on the folk-dance music of the Yorkshire Dales and has a tutorial and tunebook for the three-row melodeon on the horizon.

NYFTE

NYFTE (pronounced "nifty") is a team of 10-19 year olds from all over the country who perform traditional dance, music and song. Find out more, including how to join, at www.nyfte.org.uk

DOC ROWE

Since the 60s he has been recording and filming cultural tradition, arts, folklore, song and dance of Britain and Ireland. His collection is the most extensive of audio and video material to celebrate the variety and richness of traditional folk culture of these islands.

VAL MARSDEN AND GRAHAM PIRT

Val and Graham have been singing together since 1987. Originally, they performed as part of Cockersdale. When Cockersdale stopped performing in 2012, Val and Graham decided to continue singing together. Their repertoire has broadened since then but has always included Keith's songs. Having been regular performers at Whitby – Graham since 1966, they are delighted to be part of this on-line festival and look forward to 2022.

GEORGE SANSOME & MATT QUINN

An exciting new collaboration between two leading lights of their generation of traditional singers, George Sansome (Granny's Attic) and Matt Quinn (Dovetail Trio) sing traditional folk songs from the British Isles, both unaccompanied and accompanied by mandolin and guitar. Their well-blended voices and close harmonies create a warm, enthralling sound and their English folk instrumental styles complement each other perfectly. Sansome, who also performs solo, is a deft guitarist with a rich, sweet voice. Quinn, also known for his solo work focusing on traditional songs from Sussex, is a skilled performer with a distinctive voice and sprightly mandolin style. "Reliably excellent" - Bright Young Folk

BRIAN PETERS

Brian Peters has been a Whitby regular for many years. He's one of the English folk scene's great all-rounders: a compelling singer of traditional songs, a top squeezebox player (anglo concertina and melodeon), and a skilled guitarist. Brian's interests run from Child ballads to Appalachian music – if you're lucky he may bring his banjo – and you can be sure of a varied and entertaining set.

BENAMMI SWIFT

A young melodeon player hailing from Derbyshire. Having been part of the first EFDSS National Youth Folk Ensemble and first cohort of the LCoM Folk degree, Benammi is an innovative player that specialises in English music but often branches out to Irish, Continental and even other genres of music.

MAP

Traditionally, the middle pages of the programme show a map of Whitby.

So, we're keeping up tradition with a map but this one will have to reflect where you are now when you're not in Whitby.

FEATURED ARTISTS

The programme map is used for two reasons:

1. to find where things are;
2. so you know when you are halfway through the week and you exclaim "we're past the map!" Because of magic and tides, the first half of the week always goes slower than the second half of the week!
